CURIOSITY

It has been a lively week at school this week! The highlight was undoubtedly the Druhm workshops, which brought rhythm and energy to our classrooms—both children and staff had a fantastic time getting involved. We also welcomed the Dog's Trust, who delivered informative and engaging workshops about staying safe around dogs—something the children found both helpful and enjoyable. Our chick eggs remain quiet for now, but we're keeping a close eye and hoping for some movement soon. Comic Relief brought lots of laughter too, especially when some very brave staff members were transformed into mummies—bandages everywhere! To top it all off, children will be bringing home their Smarties Challenge tubes today as part of a fun fundraising activity—don't forget to check their bags!

Looking ahead to next week, there's plenty to be excited about: Year 6 will be taking part in Crucial Crew and visiting the Air Raid Shelters, while the whole school will be celebrating World Maths Day. Please read on for more information about these upcoming activities!

Druhm Workshops

Thurs 20th March

This week, our school was alive with rhythm and energy, thanks to the engaging DRUHM workshops led by the founder of DRUHM Academy. Their approach combines drumming with movement and creativity, aiming to help individuals "find their beat" in both life and the classroom. Our students and staff thoroughly enjoyed the sessions, immersing themselves in dynamic drumming routines that not only taught musical skills but also fostered teamwork and self-expression. The workshops provided a unique opportunity for everyone to connect through the universal language of rhythm, leaving participants inspired and invigorated.

Keep checking the 'Gallery' on the school website to view some pictures/clips of the sessions.

NOTICES

- Visiting Athlete: This week, Mr Moss delivered a special assembly to announce an exciting event — Olympic Bronze medalist Emily Ford will be visiting our school on Tuesday 1st April! We're thrilled to welcome Emily and hear about her incredible journey in sport. Even more exciting, Emily has agreed to be the first guest on our brand-new school podcast — so keep an ear out for that episode coming soon!
 - Get Ready for Maths Day – Interhouse Mathsletics Fun! Next week is our Interhouse Mathsletics: Maths Day, packed with number fun and friendly competition! Children are encouraged to come in Rockstar hair and accessories as we celebrate maths with a lively Times Tables Rock Stars Challenge and a special Maths Quiz. It's a brilliant way to bring energy and excitement to learning — and to see which house will take the Mathsletics crown!
 - Parents' Evening: The link to book your slot will be live from Monday 24th March. Please contact the school office or your child's class teacher if you have any problems accessing the link.
- PTA
- Smartie Challenge: The children have received their tube of smarties for this year's Smartie Challenge. Please 20p coins and return by 31st March.
 - Summer Fair Circus: Don't forget to purchase your tickets for this fantastic event.

Finally, with so much to look forward to, it's shaping up to be a fantastic few weeks at school! From the visit by Olympic medalist Emily Ford and the launch of our very first school podcast, to the high-energy fun of Maths Day and our Interhouse Mathsletics challenge, there's something for everyone to enjoy. We can't wait to see everyone getting involved, showing their team spirit, and celebrating learning in such exciting ways!

Have a lovely weekend!
